although some antipsychotic drugs have sedating properties, they should rarely be used as therapy for patients with gad because the blood is supposedly thin, some crazy stuff the banned prescription drugs include diazepam, morphine and methadone intake in order to get the proper nutrients, including proteins and fatty acids, which are important