in January 1985, the three founding members of the Mankind Project, Rich Tosi, Bill Kauth and Ron Hering, took 18 men out on what was then called the "Wildman Weekend," in Haimowoods, Wisconsin.

I realized it’s dumb to wait and see if Swiss Temple hair gets any thicker because growing hair on the front is not scientifically possible.

A Jewish beggar is not impossible, perhaps; such a thing may exist, but there are few men that can say they have seen that spectacle.